Roena, I was given your address by Cecelia Brown. She thought you could help me with Bayes/Haley/Cornell genealogy questions I have. My husband's mother was Dorothy L. (HALEY) BARNES, daughter of Freeman H. and Lucy (GILL) HALEY. Freeman was the son of William P. and Nancy J (CORNELL) HALEY. My brick wall at this point concerns the CORNELLs. I know Nancy is the daughter of James and Margarette (BAYES) CORNELL but I can't go any farther back on the CORNELL line than James. Can you shed some light on that for me? Also, I see that Catherine HALEY (daughter of James and Hester (POTTER) HALEY married Thomas BAYES. How is he connected to Margarette BAYES? Finally the picture I am sending you is ID'd on the back as Mrs. James Cornell but since he married 3 times I don't know if it is Margarette Bayes. Can you verify it for me? Hope I'm not being a bother. Anxiously waiting to hear from you. Bobbie Barnes

P.JOHN POTTER    b. England (tradition); was a farmer in NJ, where son William was born 1767 and dau Hannah was born ca 1772.
 | Probably in Westmoreland Co, PA by 1790; two children of son William were born in neighboring Fayette Co. 1793 and 1796.
 | John Potter came to Coitsville, OH, near Youngstown, in 1798 with son and several grandchildren (1801, 1807, 1811 poll
 | books; an 1882 history of Trumbull Co. states: "The first tailor was John Potter, a very early settler".
 | He died after 1820 (census record shows John Potter at Coitsville in 1820.)
 | m.               The wife of John Potter was born in Scotland (tradition) -- name unknown
 | Some background on John Potter's children is found in the mention of John's daughter Hannah Potter Vail (P3) in
 | the Old Settlers section of the 1872 Atlas of Schuyler County, IL. Regarding her husband Samuel Vail, it is stated that
 |      ".... he married Miss Hannah Potter; four of her brothers were in the army of Independence. They were engaged in |      several of the principal battles of the revolution. The British soldiers destroyed most all of her father's property,
 |      such as the personal effects belonging to a farmer."
 | Since we know that Hannah was born about 1772 in NJ (1850 census Coshocton Co., OH), her revolutionary brothers
 | would have been older than she. In 1902 FM Sr listed Hannah and only 2 brothers: William and Samuel [said to be unmarried].
 | It seems that Samuel and 3 other brothers were very young soldiers, born between perhaps 1755 and 1765.
P1.WILLIAM POTTER (13 Mar 1767 = 27 Feb 1842)  b. New Jersey, came to Ohio in 1798, d. age 75 at Coitsville, near Youngstown, OH
 |  He had 11 children, P11 through P1B. The birthdates and nicknames are from the family Bible.
 |  m.CATHARINE FREEMAN (Caty) (7 Oct 1767/8 = 27 Mar 1851) on 11 May 1788; b in NJ, d in Pulaski, Mahoning Co., OH
 |  Age 83 in 1850 census in household of her daughter Catherine Bissell (P1A)
 |  Settlement of estate of William Potter shows that Family Bible went to the widow.

We have a rich heritage from all our ancestors who were willing to come to a wilderness to make their homes.

One generation after another, will follow in the future years to come. Let us walk in their footsteps, and meet any challenge we may face in the future. Submitted by: Eleanor Feigert Zepp

PRAIRIE TOWNSHIP

About 1735 marauding Delaware Indians raided settlements in Connecticut and took Mary Harris, a young white girl, prisoner. She was adopted into the tribe and grew to womanhood. Her beauty captivated Chief Custaloga's son Eagle Feather, who made her his squaw. Being pushed farther westward the tribe finally settled on the Tuscarawas River. About 1840 Eagle Feather and Mary settled on the Walhonding River near the mouth of Killbuck Creek, at "White Woman's Town". By 1750 she was thoroughly Indianized, and entered into all the Indian customs & activities. Eagle Feather was very proud of her and often took her on boat rides up Killbuck Creek to Chief Killbuck's Town at the "Crossing Place" south of the Wayne-Holmes Co. Line. Without doubt Mary was the first white woman in Prairie Township.

Thomas Burney, a sort of blacksmith, lived in this area among the Indians sharpening knives & tools. He probably was the first white man in this township.

Because of the wandering nature of Indians their villages did not remain long in one place. Chief Killbuck and his tribe of Delawares had their town a short distance from the "Crossing Place" northwest of the Big Spring about 1761. Chief Killbuck & his son Gelelel held their group together and respected the treaty made between Wm. Penn and the Delawares at Shackamaxon. There are few Indian Mounds in Prairie Township. One is on the Ed Parrot Farm between the house & barn. "Big Chief Mound" is 28 ft. across and is on the highest spot in Andy Miller's Lookout Camp Park. "Wheaton's Knob", southwest of Holmesville is 1170 ft. above sea level and was used by the Indians as a signal tower. Flint for arrowheads was obtained from a ridge in the southeast corner of Prairie Township.

Traders and settlers when crossing streams looked for an easy fording or crossing place. Such a place was found northwest of the Big Spring about 1 mile south of the county line. All trails seemed to lead to this place, and became a social center of the locality. Cargoes of supplies were unloaded here and people would come to carry or haul them away.

Johnny Appleseed planted an orchard at this place and Jonathan Butler built a grist mill and sawmill near the crossing. He kept a boat here to aid people in crossing when the water was high.

In July 1809 Jonathan Grant of Beaver County, Pa. with his 15 year old son erected the first white man's cabin in this area. They came on foot carrying a gun, ammunition, a bag of seeds, cornmeal, and a few tools. The cabin was erected near Salt Creek about a mile northeast of Holmesville. They then cleared a half acre of ground and sowed it in turnips. Soon Grant became sick and for weeks he lay on a bed of leaves attended only by his son. Grant was reduced to a skeleton James Morgan and their families who had just arrived from Virginia, camped at the Big Spring. Big Spring was then named Butler's Spring, later Jones's Spring and finally Bushey's Spring.

Butler sent Grant assistance and soon brought him to their camp. Being a skillful hunter, as soon as he was able, Grant supplied the families with game while they built their cabins. The Morgans built their cabin about 2 miles north of the Big Spring. That fall Grant returned to Pennsylvania, leaving the turnips for Butler to use, and returned to his cabin in April 1810. He was a surveyor, great hunter, crafty woodsman, and learned to speak several Indian languages. Grant, a Revolutionary War Vet was buried in McCulloch Cemetery about 3 Mi. east of Holmesville.

Edward Martin, John Dawson, David and Robert Knox settled on Martins Creek a mile and a half southeast of Holmesville in April 1810. The same year came the Haleys, Casters, Wolgamotts, Nevils, Buckmasters, and John Merrill who built a log house with the first shingled roof in this area. Hugh McCulloch arrived in April, 1811 and also located on Martins Creek. After clearing some land he grew the first crop of rye in this area. As Indians were troublesome during the War of 1812, McCulloch wrote to the Governor of Ohio and had a company of soldiers stationed in the vicinity. A blockhouse was constructed on the John Dawson Farm for the Martins Creek settlers' protection in 1812. Another blockhouse was built by Peter Croco north of Holmesville on the Tom Wilson Farm. It was 20 ft. square at the base. After running up 8 ft. it extended over 8 ft. to prevent Indians from climbing up. It served as protection for people in that area.

George McCulloch, son of Hugh, was born July 1811 and is thought to be the first male white child born in Prairie Twp. Also, Hannah Butler, daughter of Jonathan Butler, born 1810 was probably the first white child born in the area. She maried David Finney of Monroe Township.

Other early families were in 1811 John Cissna, Josiah Bell, John Gwinn, Cornelius Dorland, John & William Poulson. In 1812 Henry Hoerger, Robert Beall, and William Kerr came as also did Philip Smith and sons George and Philip Jr. with Jesse McIntire, and traded with the Indians. They brought supplies and clothing up Killbuck Creek in a dug-out canoe, made from a solid log, Indian style and traded for corn & other crops.

An election was held in 1812 in the home of Jonathan Butler at the Big Spring. David Knox was elected Justice of the Peace.

In 1813 David McCulloch from Pennsylvania purchased land. Benoni Dawson came 1814; Nathaniel Bell and William Painter in 1815; Tom Graham, James Adams, and John Graven 1816; James Graven, Wm. Johnson, Russell and Anson Wheaton, and Jesse Morgan 1817; Peter Croco, Tom Watson, and Jacob Arnold 1820; Ezekiel Cutter and James Sterling 1821; Peter Painter and Tom Wheaton 1823; John Hites 1826; Elizabeth Robinson 1828; Thomas Lecky 1830; Jeremiah Lecky settled southwest of Killbuck Crossing & built the Lecky Schoolhouse of logs. Joseph McElroy operated a coal bank south of Fredericksburg in 1832. J. S. Cutter came 1833; Samuel Moreland 1835; Henry Darnell settled on Rush Run 1837 (now the Dean

Dear uncle and aunt

It is with much sorrow that I am led to bear you by way of letter the painful inteligence that my Mother is dead She wrote the above lines with intention of sending them to you by the next mail and did not close her letter till the day before the male was to go east and on that day which was the fourth of this month she was taken with the Billious fever and lay till the twentysecond and then died between one and two O'clock in the morning She had her senses on till She died but she got a very sore tongue and could not talk to any of us at all it is a very sore affliction for us to lose a kind and tender Mother but we must put up with it Father took the ague and James and myself took the billious fever about the same time but we have got pretty near well my nerves are so weak that I can not write any more at present but we want you to let all of the friends know concerning Mothers death and write us a letter and let us know how you all are, and then we can write more Satisfactorily concerning Mothers death

Nothing more at present give my love to all the cousins

Dear uncle and aunt

It is with much sorrow that I am led to bear you by way of letter the painful inteligence that my Mother is dead She wrote the above lines with intention of sending them to you by the next mail and did not close her letter till the day before the male was to go east and on that day which was the fourth of this month she was taken with the Billious fever and lay till the twentysecond and then died between one and two Oclock in the morning She had her senses on till She died but she got a very sore tongue and could not talk to any of us at all it is a very sore affliction for us to lose a kind and tender Mother but we must put up with it Father took the ague and James and myself took the billious fever about the same time but we have got pretty near well my nerves are so weak that I can not write any more at present but we want you to let all of the friends know concerning Mothers death and write us a letter and —

let us know how you all are, and then we can write more Satisfactorily concerning Mothers death

Nothing more at presen give my love to all the cousens

Death of Mrs. Sarah E. Haley.

Mrs. Sarah E. Haley, deceased, was born in Lancaster County, Penn., Jan. 11, 1824. Moved with her parents to Holmes Co., Ohio, in 1836. November [illegible], 1842, she was married to John Haley who still survives her. She was the mother of thirteen children, ten sons and three daughters, of whom five sons and one daughter are still living. In November, 1851, she came with her husband and family to Fulton County, Ohio, where she resided until her death, which occured May 13, 1886, at her home in Wauseon, being 62 years, 4 months and 2 days old. While yet living in Holmes County, she with her husband united with the Reformed Lutheran church. There being no church of that denomination in Fulton County she united with the Disciple church in the spring of 1865 and was immersed by Eld. L. B. Smith and has lived a faithful, consistent christian until called to that rest which is promised to all the faithful children of God. A dear wife and mother is taken from us and we sadly miss her, but we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we know if we are faithful we shall meet her again when the morning of eternity shall dawn to us. We mourn, but, "our loss is her gain." "Weeping may endure for the night but joy cometh in the morning." The funeral services were conducted on Saturday, May 15, by Rev. O. A. Newton, pastor of Disciple Church.

county, Ohio. They lived in Wood county from 1834 until 1840, when they moved to the timber land they had entered in the wilds of what is now Fulton county. There were twelve children born in the family, and the father died April 30, 1872, and the mother lived until May 7, 1899. She was a charter member of the Presbyterian Church which was organized in John King's barn one mile south of Delta.

Harry Brooks Mack now owns Fairmont Farm, the old Mack homestead of pioneer days in Fulton county. He is a grandson of the woman who immigrated from Ireland and bears her name as well as the Mack family name. On March 23, 1904, he married Florence LaVerne Haley. She is a daughter of John Rutter and Elizabeth (Roos) Haley. She was born in Chesterfield. The Haley grandparents were John and Sarah (Rutter) Haley. He was from Holmes county, Ohio, and John R. Haley, father of Mrs. Mack, was born there. The grandmother was born in Pennsylvania, but the mother was born in Chesterfield. The maternal grandfather, John Philip Roos, was born at Red Hook, New York, and he is descended from Dr. John Philip Burchard Roos, who joined Washington's army in the Revolutionary war. They are of Hessian descent. The grandmother, Emily (Noblis) Roos, was born at Warsaw, New York, but her parents came early to Chesterfield.

The children born to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mack are: Agnes Elizabeth, May 5, 1906; Harry Haley, March 3, 1909; and Norman Brooks, July 26, 1915. The family are members of the Christian Church. Fairmont Farm is one of the oldest family homesteads in Fulton county.

The farm comprises eighty-three acres, is practically all under cultivation, and its improvements easily identify it among the better country homes of the county. To a large degree the success of this modern farm has been due to the intelligent efforts put forth by Harry B. Mack, who in his own character worthily upholds the record of this honored pioneer name in Fulton county.

Francis Jerome Hoyt. Having spent his life in Swan Creek Township, Francis Jerome Hoyt, one of the progressive farmers of Fulton county, naturally is much interested in this region and an active factor in promoting its welfare. He was born in Swan Creek Township on January 18, 1856, a son of Charles and Amelia (McCullough) Hoyt, he born near Batavia, New York, and she in Sandusky county, Ohio. In 1844 Charles Hoyt came to Cuyahoga county, Ohio, with his parents, but later left them and settled on the Maumee River in Lucas county. Following his marriage he spent a few years in Henry county, and then bought eighty acres of wild timber land in Swan Creek Township, Fulton county, which he cleared off, improved and resided upon until his death, which occurred on March 16, 1889. His wife passed away in 1875, having borne him the following children: Marietta, who is Mrs. John Alonza King of Weston, Ohio; Ruth Alice, who is Mrs. Eugene Kane, of Toledo, Ohio; and Francis Jerome, who is the youngest. Charles Hoyt had a daughter by a previous marriage, who is Jane, Mrs. Robert Wood, of Wood county, Ohio.

Francis J. Hoyt was married to Isabella Hulet, a daughter of Edward and Rachel (Lindley) Hulet, born in Cuyahoga county, Ohio. Mr. Hulet was born at Brunswick, Medina county, Ohio. In

It was April 16, 1910, that Mr. Christman went by the Toledo & Indiana Electric Line to Toledo, and on his return he left the car at the Lincoln Hotel in Delta. There was a severe electric storm, and as he was making his way to the home of a friend that night he became entangled in live wires, the traction wire having been blown down and lodged across some high tension wires, and he was struck by a telephone wire with 18,000 volts. In order to protect his face he grasped the wire with his hands and could not let loose of it again.

It was after night and storming and no one was out to hear his cries for assistance, and Mr. Christman stood holding that live wire one hour and ten minutes, every minute filled with agony. Finally, between eleven and twelve o'clock, some one heard the call of distress and notified the town marshal, who came to his relief. He was carried into a nearby house and doctors were called and the injured hands were dressed, although he was so badly burned they assured him he would not live until morning.

Next day Mr. Christman was taken to the Wauseon Hospital, and three days later the hands were amputated as the only possible relief. He was in the hospital three weeks and under the care of the doctor for seven weeks. The damage case was settled out of court, the Toledo & Indiana Traction Company paying him something like $21,000 in money. In the following December Mr. Christman left the farm and settled on a smaller place suburban to Delta. He still owns the farm in Swan Creek Township.

Mr. Christman has invented an artificial hand with which he can accomplish almost anything he undertakes. It is patented and he receives a royalty on the sales, thus benefiting from it financially as well as physically, and he is able to do the work on his smaller farm adjoining Delta. Mr. Christman is a trustee in the Christian Church and also trustee in the Modern Woodmen of America. In a political way he votes the democratic ticket. His children are: Floyd M. Christman, manager of the United States Express Company's business at Rochester, Indiana; Beatrice, who is now teaching school; and Ruth and Roland Frederick, who live at the home of their father.

The Fulton county record of the Christman family is throughout one of honorable industry and public spirit, and it is a significant illustration of the character of the family stock that Mr. Christman when handicapped by physical energies has been able to continue a life of usefulness and "by using his head" is able to do more than many otherwise able-bodied men are competent to accomplish.

Harry B. Mack. The Fairmont Farm, known as the Mack family homestead near Delta, was entered from the government in the territorial days of Fulton county history. Although of Scotch parentage, Eliza Brooks Mack was born May 3, 1804, in Donegal, Ireland. She boarded a ship, June 18, 1823, at Londonderry, Ireland, and sailed for the United States. It was August 15 that she landed in New York City. She was almost two months crossing the Atlantic.

This young Irish woman remained in New York until December 1, 1829, when she married William Mack, who had also come from Ireland. They located in Jefferson county, New York, where they remained four years before coming to Perrysburg, Wood

Dear Jim -

I believe the last time we saw each other was at Jamie's graduation from Kenyon. At the time I discussed the fact that I am now doing a lot of family history. In fact, I have found that I have a remote direct ancestor, James Allen, died 1714 in Tisbury, Martha's Vineyard , presumably buried there.

But that is not my interest at this time. Recently I spent the night at the home of a distant cousin in Fairfield, PA (8 miles south of Gettysburg). She is Roena Bayes, whose father was my 3rd cousin. Her greatgrandfather THOMAS BAYES married my grandmother's 1st cousin, on the Potter side.

I was struck by the fact that Roena volunteered the information that although her ancestor Thomas Bayes was born in Holmes County, OH and moved to Northwestern Ohio wher there is a Bayes Cemetery at Farmer, ~~Fulton~~ Defiance County., the family had originally come from Martha's Vineyard.

This prompts me to ask if you have access to any Bayes family history on the Island that would mention THOMAS BAYES, who married Martha --- about 1810 -- or any Bayes that is in any way connected with Holmes County OH.

++ I would be interested to know if your father's name of BAYES NORTON indicates that you have Bayes ancestry. If so, how?

my colleague at Kenyon - chem prof - was from Martha's Vinyard.

All goes well here at Kenyon. Phil Jordan retired and the new president, just coming in, is Robert Oden , former headmaster of Hotchkiss School. (pronounces O-De Strangely, we just learned this week that in his first year of retirement, Phil Jord will serve as interim headmaster of Lawrenceville Academy in Princeton, of which he and his sons are graduates, and on whose Board of Directors he serves. This will be for 1 year during the search for a new headmaster for Lawrenceville.

Roena - Thanks for the wonderful hospitality. Hope your computer treats you well.

Hello Roena,

Long time since I have heard from you. How is it going????
Hope all is well.

Which Haley does the J. R. Haley that married Elizabeth (Libbie) descend from? There is a Florence Haley that married a MACK also with the group. I thought that Edward Haley had a daughter Florence, but do not know to whom Edward was married. Also found some old obituaries that said Delilah TEDROW was married to Richard Haley and is seemd to fit with Catherine's brother Richard. Is this correct???

1. Delilah E.4 Tedrow (Isaac3, Michael Jr.2, Michael1) was born April 04, 1841 in Wauseon, OH, and died January 02, 1916 in Wauseon, OH. She married Richard Haley December 25, 1859, son of James Haley and Hester Potter. Richard2 Haley (James1) was born 1826, and died 1907 in Kansas

moved to Kansas in 1878 and back after death of Richard in 1907

Children of Delilah Tedrow and Richard Haley are:
2 i. Daughter1 Haley. She married A. H. Slater.
3 ii. Daughter2 Haley. She married W. S. Williams.

Do you know the names of these 2 daughters, all the obit said was Mrs. A. H. Slater and Mrs. W. S. Williams

Story by Orval Wisle

THE CANTLEBERRY FAMILY

Reuben Thomas Cantleberry was born in Pennsylvania. Reuben was an orphan raised by the W. S. Corn family. About 1834, when Reuben was 16 years old, the Corn family gave him a rifle and powder horn (The powder horn with the initials "W.S. Corn" carved on it is in the possession of a nephew of Orval Wisler's.). After these gifts, he went out into the world to find his place.

On April 2, 1854, he married (in Fulton County) Sarah J. Haley. She was born in Ohio on February 7, 1820. Reuben and Sarah had three children: Esther Louise, David Leonard and Rebecca Catherine.

Esther Louise married Joseph John Wisda and they had fourteen children.

David Leonard was born September 12, 1857 and died March 18, 1866 and is buried in Fulton County near Wauseon.

Rebecca Catherine married John F. Wisler and they had four children. One of Rebecca's children is still living in Rushville, Indiana at the age of 88.

In 1867, Reuben Thomas Cantleberry moved with his family to Tiffen Township, Defiance County, Ohio. There he farmed 40 acres. He was also a trapper and a very good hunter. Reuben may have had at least one brother, David, who was also born in Pennsylvania. David moved to Fulton County in 1844. He was married to Eliza Louisa Davenport. They had a least four children: Maria Anna, Harriet, Emmanuel B. and James E.

Eliza Louisa Davenport was born in Eastern Ohio.

David, with his wife, Eliza and daughter, Harriet, are buried at Union Cemetery, Clinton Township, Fulton ounty, Wauseon, Ohio.

strate; he may write down beneathe the picture in large letters the word "Patriot;" he may, in very noisy and earnest words, insist that he is a "sound Democrat," and that every man of his party who sustains the war is an "Abolitionists." Yet after all he is neither a patriot nor a good Democrat. You may turn him upside down and inside out, and cleanse and wash him with all the pure waters of America, and you can make nothing out of him but a poor, miserable traitor—just such a one as Gen. Jackson would have strung up for treason in his day, and looked for the authority afterward!

The ews From Mobile.

That we have achieved a most important success at Mobile is true beyond a doubt. The news comes through the Richmond papers. According to the rebel official report, seventeen of our vessels passed Fort Morgan on the morning of the 5th instant. The iron-clad ram, Tennessee, being the rebel flag ship, surrendered after a desperate contest. Admiral Fʀᴀɴᴋʟɪɴ Bᴜᴄʜᴀɴᴀɴ, commander of the rebel fleet has lost a leg and is a prisoner in our hands. The Selma, a cotton-clad rebel boat was captured. and the Gaines, another cotton-clad was beached. This leaves but nine vessels which comprise the rebel navy at Mobile. According to this same report we we have lost out one monitor, the Tecumseh, which was sunk by the guns at Fort Morgan.

Prior to this movement the rebel fleet at Mobile consisted of twelve vessels with fifty guns, while the Union fleet under Fᴀʀʀᴀɢᴜᴛ consisted of thirty two vessels with two hundred and thirty-one guns. According to the rebel official report the effective fleet of the rebels is reduced to nine vessels with thirty-five guns, while Farragut has thirty-one vessels with two hundred and twenty-nine guns. The dispatch states that he has approached the the city, which is at the head of the bay, thirty miles from Forts Morgan and Gaines, which command the middle channel. The news from that quarter will now be awaited with much anxiety and interest.

From the New York Herald we give the following description of the formidable defences of Mobile:

Mobile is perhaps the best defended place in the Gulf, and it will require all the dash of Farragut to gain a foothold inside of the defences. It is not only protected by heavy forts, well armed, but by a formidable flotilla of iron-clad rams, gunboats and cotton-clads; and this fleet must be destroyed or driven well up the bay before it will be safe for the wooden vessels to pass in. Nature, in laying out the bay, ran out a long, sandy peninsula, called Mobile Point, upon which the United States Government placed a strong work mounting one hundred and thirty-six guns, two tiers in casemate and one en barbette. This is situated on the starboard or right side of the entrance to the bay, through the swash channel. On the port or left hand side is situated Dauphin Island, on whose eastern extremity is located Fort Gaines, also casemated work mounting some fifty guns or more, commanding the middle channel and the passage up the bay. Outlying from these two an ox team, a number of years passing before he secured horses, and in the early days he was accustomed to utilize his oxen in driving to the church which he and his good wife attended. He has contributed his quota to the development and progress of the county and is known as a worthy citizen. In politics he gives his support to the Democratic party, and he and his wife are members of the Christian church. On the 3d of March, 1862, Mr. Gorsuch was united in marriage to Miss Maria Cantleberry, daughter of David and Louisa (Davenport) Cantleberry, who settled in Fulton county in 1844, here residing until death. He passed to his reward in 1886 and his wife died in 1895. David Cantleberry was born in Pennsylvania, in 1807, and as a young man he removed to Holmes county, Ohio, where he followed the trade of gunsmith, also engaging in farming. He was married in that county, and after his removal to Fulton county made farming his principal vocation. Mr. and Mrs. Gorsuch have four sons, each of whom has been provided with a good farm, through the providence and kindness of their father. Edwin L., who resides in Section 3o, Clinton township, married Miss Margaret Mohr; Nathan N., whose farm is in Sections 4 and 33, Pike township, married Miss Lucy Becker; David W., whose farm is in Section 30, York township, married Miss Ida Bryant ; and Frank P., who resides on the old homestead, in Clinton township, married Miss Henrietta Genter. The sons received good educational advantages and are numbered among the representative young farmers of the county.

EPHRAIM GORSUCH, a representative farmer and pioneer citizen of Clinton township, was born in Wayne county, Ohio, December 22, 1835. His father, Simon Gorsuch, was born near Pittsburg, Pa., whence he came to Wayne county, Ohio, when a young man, being there married and there continuing his residence until 1854, when he came to Fulton county, settling in section 15, Clinton township, and later establishing his residence in section 16, where he died on the 3d of March, 1886. He served in the War of 1812 and represented Wayne county in the State legislature for one term. The maiden name of his wife was Elizabeth Ayers, and she was born and reared in Wayne county, and she died in Clinton township, Fulton county, November 20, 1872. This honored pioneer couple became the parents of seven sons and seven daughters, and of the number five are living. One son, Mordecai, was a member of an Ohio regiment in the Civil war, being taken prisoner and having been held in captivity for some time at Belle Isle and later at Jackson, where he died. Ephraim Gorsuch passed his boyhood and youth in Wayne county, in the common schools of which he secured his early educational training, and he was about nineteen years of age at the time of the family removal to Fulton county, where he has ever since resided and where he has attained to a high degree of success in temporal affairs. He is the owner of five well-improved farms in Fulton county, four of them being operated by his sons, and the aggregate area of his landed estate is four hundred and five acres, making him one of the extensive land holders of the county. He is a man of liberal views and much public spirit, and is held in unqualified esteem in the community in which he has so long made his home. Mr. Gorsuch is now living essentially retired, having an attractive little place of five acres, improved with a fine modern residence and other excellent buildings, his home near the scene of his former industrial labors as an agriculturist. After his marriage he purchased a tract of forty acres of land, of which only seven acres had been cleared, the remaining being covered with a dense growth of timber. Cecelia was born June 12, 1958, in Defiance, Ohio, the daughter of George and Gertrude (Wisda) Schindler. She attended Tinora High School. Dear Cecilia,

We were surprised to receive a letter from you, and pleased, too. Since your letter arrived there has been one thing after another, so we are making a reply just now; finally. We are sorry for the delay.

Will try to answer as many of your questions as possible. Among our resources are a "History of Defiance County" and the family Bible.

Orval's mother's name was Rebecca Catherine Cantleberry. She was born in Tiffin Twp, Defiance Co, Ohio. on Jan. 9, 1860. She died July 28, 1939 and is buried in Evansport Cemetery. She had a sister and a brother: Hester Louisa Cantleberry Wisda, born August 20, 1855 and died June 21, 1915, and David Leonard Cantteberry born Sept. 12, 1857 and died March 18, 1866.

Orval remembers his grandmother, Sarah J. Haley Cantleberry, but his grandfather (Reuben) died before Orval was born. Reuben was an orphan, raised by the W. S. Corn family, and was on his own at age 16. He Orval also recalls losing a front tooth playing croquet at the Gossage place in Wauseon.

We are enclosing a copy of a page of information, with additions we put together some time ago for Orval's sisters (Jessie) family. I think it may be of help to you.

Some other facts we found:

Joseph Wisda was born June 21, 1847 and married Hester Louisa Cantleberry June 2, 1874.

Jennie Dell Wisda was born June 10, 1875 and Thomas Reuben Wisda was born Jan. 15, 1877. We surmise Jennie and Thomas were children of Joseph and Hester.

We note variance in spelling of Cantleberry, Hester (Ester) and Haley. You may notice, too that Orval spells his name differently.

Orval's wife (Velma) has written this letter because of Orval's arthritis which greatly affects his writing.

We hope this information helps with your family trees. Expect you have lots of information and pictures we don't have. We'll be glad to hear from you again.

Yours sincerely,
Orval and Velma Wisler

P.S. We are both retired, of course. Orval was a mortician. & Velma a teacher
